

VCEMS Training Bulletin

Bulletin 043

Date: August 11, 2017

The recent epinephrine auto-injector shortage forced providers to reconsider how we utilize epinephrine during cardiac arrests. The current Ventura County protocols are consistent with national guidelines and have not changed. Please continue to treat all patients per approved VCEMSA protocols.